Respected Sir,

With due respect I the undersigned and the father of No: 100 (Cadet) G.N. Purushothaman beg to bring these few lines for your kind consideration and favourable orders.

That at the time of my leaving Bangalore I had the privilege to discuss with your honour the problem concerning the future of my eldest son named above, and requested to send him for the Selection Board, failing which the alternative was to put him in the Air Force or Navy as a Technician in Group I or A, since he had his education and good training under your able guidance in that school.

The boy had appeared for I.A. Special exam and passed part 'B' last year and I learnt that he could'nt complete part
'A' owing to his bad luck. Hope there is every possibility that he can succeed provided he attempts it again either from his school or in service.

Now, the age of the boy is 17 years 11 months on 1 Aug
'53 and hardly few weeks more for the completion of his 18th year.

Recently I left AMC and joined The Maratha Light Infantry on Inter-arm-transfer. My choice and the boy's liking is to choose only Air Force or Navy for his future prospects. I therefore, request your honour to be kind enough to give all your support to the ambitious parent and the student who seek your help for admission in Air Force or Navy with prospects in the technical line.

For which act of kindness and generosity, I will be ever grateful to you.

I once again offer my heartfelt thanks to your honour and to the staff who were so kind enough to guide the boy well during the time of his school life.

BELGAUM.

Yours faithfully,

R. G. Natesan

1. A boy must have passed the Army Special Certificate of Education Examination for entry into Group I, in I.A.F.

Your son, since he has not passed this Examination, will not be accepted for Group I or II. He can be recommended for Technician, Group - M.T. Driver.

2. Regarding Navy, he will be over age. Further, the recruitment will only be open after 18-10-53 for Navy.

3. In view of para 1 & 2 above, please state whether you require your son to join IAF as an M.T. Driver or any equivalent trade.

I strongly recommend him for enrolment in the E.M.E. where, there are various Technical trades which will be useful even after coming out of the corps.

4. Please let me know your decision.

Respected Sir,

Ref. Your letter No: 100/B/P dated 8 Aug '53.

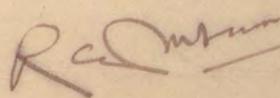

I am highly thankful to your honour for your recommendation for enrolment of my son No: 100 (Cadet) G.N.Purushothaman in the EME in Technical trades, which will be useful even after coming out of the corps.

Since the boy has passed Part 'B' of I.A. Special, I request you very much to keep the boy in the school for a couple of months more to enable him to appear for Part 'A' during Oct '53, which will be a great advantage for him in his career. If, this is not possible, on completion of his 18th year the boy may please be strongly recommended for Group 'A' in Technical trade as a special case of being a KGM School student and in possession of qualification of Part 'B' of I.A.Special.

Pray that your honour will grant my humble request.

Thanking you very much.
